SECRETS OF THE TOA INIKA!

FROM THE CHRONICLES OF HAHLI:

A strange and amazing thing has happened! I and five of my Matoran friends journeyed to the island of Voya Nui. When we arrived, bolts of lightning from a mysterious red star transformed us. Now we are Toa Inika – and unlike any heroes ever known before. ■

TOA JALLER

Light-Up Weapon

Our Toa weapons are charged with incredible energies that make them light up when in use.

8727

TOA HAHLI

New Armor

Toa Inika armor is quite different from any seen before, designed to contain the energy that courses through our forms.

8728

TOA NUPARU

New Kanohi Masks

The masks we wear are very different from any Toa masks we have seen before, with awesome new abilities.

8729

TOA KONGU

Zamor Sphere Launcher

Our Matoran friends on this island crafted zamor sphere launchers for us. They hurl spheres that can free the villagers of Voya Nui from enslavement.

8731

TOA MATORO

Glow in the Dark Heads

Now filled with the energies of the lightning, even our features glow brightly.

8732

TOA HEWKII

New Colors

Even the colors of our armor were changed by the lightning. Toa Hewkii is the first Toa of Stone in memory to be a shade other than brown.

Piraka Stronghold

This fortress is the headquarters of the evil Piraka. It's here that they keep the antidermis virus they used to enslave the Matoran. We know we will have to drive them out of there if we want to win the fight ... but so far, I don't see how we'll do it.

- Protected by zamor sphere launchers and strong gates.
- Largest building on the island.
- Defended by all six Piraka.
- Built for the Piraka by the Matoran before they realized the villains' true natures.
- At least one other attempt was made to attack this fortress, by the Toa Nuva and the Matoran resistance – they were defeated.

TOA NUPARU'S

GUIDE TO VOYA NUI

As the aerial scout for the Toa Inika, I've had the chance to study some of the most important locations on the island of Voya Nui. Add to that the legends shared by the Matoran and the mysterious being called Axonn, and I can share some secrets that might just save Toa lives. ■

Piraka Outpost

Close to a dozen of these outposts dot Voya Nui. They were built by the Piraka to defend approaches to their stronghold. We are going to have to destroy at least a few of them if we hope to take the Piraka's headquarters.

- Protected by automated guardians called Nektann.
- Some Nektann are fixed, and some are mobile.
- Jaller is relying on spider like Rahi called "Fenrakk Spawn" to help us smash these outposts, but I am not sure how far we can trust these creatures.

Lava Chamber Gate

I have never actually seen this structure, but Axonn has described it. Just before you reach the chamber that holds the Mask of Life, there is a great bridge over a river of lava. At the end of the bridge is a small gateway that leads to the mask's hiding place. We will need to get across this bridge to achieve our goal – if we make it that far.

- The bridge is incredibly ancient and not very stable – so there is the danger that a well-placed blast of power could bring it down.
- If the Piraka reach the bridge first, they will no doubt set up zamor sphere launchers to defend it against us.
- Once over the bridge, we just have to raise the gateway and our quest will be almost finished!

Mythical Creatures

Here are but a few of the Fantastic creatures that may be built from the parts and pieces within this LEGO set! ■

The dreaded DRAGON casts its shadow over the land! With enormous wings and breath of glowing flame, it is the most feared of creatures. There must be a grand tale in the spiked collar and broken chain the beast still wears.

Thrice the danger looms, for the 3-headed WYVERN allows none to enter his hidden cave of gold. No treasure-hunter has yet escaped the creature's ever-watchful gaze!

Beware as you cross the bridge, for the brutish OGRE may lurk beneath to rob passing travelers. Though low on brains, in savage strength he has no match.

The swamp is no place of safety when the GIANT SCORPION is on the hunt. With its long claws and short temper, this swiftly stinging beast is best avoided.

Many more monsters of myth and legend await you!

- Light brick!
